MASSES FOR THE DECEASED: Omas Brischetto, recently deceased; Frances Canham, Rev. Dennis Murphy msc, Rev. Barry Hanson, Rev. James Bruce, Alice Nelson, anniversaries.

THE BREATH OF GOD: To the Israelites of old, God spoke in the wind. For them the wind was the breath of God upon the earth. They saw in the wind his breath powerful and invigorating. It was the activity and energy of God at work. The wind moved over the dark waters and barren stretches of a formless universe transforming it so that darkness gave way to light, chaos to harmony and a waste land to cultivated beauty. Then the Lord took the dust and shaped it into the form of a human being and breathed into its nostrils the breath of life: and man became a living soul.

Thus, it was that humanity, because of the breath of God within each individual, took on a divine likeness – made to the image and likeness of the creator. The bible is the book of the Spirit – the word spirit means breath. And this breath of God is felt in all its pages. It is a powerful wind carrying us along, shaping events to accomplish its purposes. The prophets of Israel felt its force. They were inspired men – men in whom the breath of God worked.

But it was not until the Old Law moved into the New and Christ appeared that the wind of God received personified expression and became seen as that holy breath, the person of the Holy Spirit. He manifested himself amid the divine storm that swept through the upper room where the first members of the Church were assembled, giving them courage and wisdom to accomplish the task they had been given to do. Today, the Church, as always, is guided by that Spirit and protected from dissolution. It is the task of the Spirit to renew its life throughout the ages. He is the Spirit of holiness whose presence in the Church, the Mystical Body of Christ, makes it “a glorious Church not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing”. He offers himself also to every member of the Church. No one can belong to Christ unless the Spirit of Christ is within, wrote St. Paul, and again, writing to the Corinthians: Surely you know that your bodies are the shrines of the Holy Spirit.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY IS BACK!

Starting 5th June at 10am during Sunday Mass. We are looking forward to welcoming our young parishioners back to Children's Liturgy during the 10am Sunday Mass. Children will have the opportunity to celebrate and reflect on the Sunday Gospel reading in an age-appropriate way. Children are led through prayer, songs, craft, and readings that are adapted to their level of understanding. We are fortunate to have some volunteers to lead this work and we would be grateful for any interested parishioners to contact outleycc@bigpond.net.au if they would be keen to assist in this important ministry.
