CHANGE OF HEART: Laws, as we all know do not of themselves create good living. The more laws there are, the greater the likelihood that they will be broken. The true approach to good conduct is through the right motivation. Christ condemned the Pharisees for their multiplication of petty regulations pointing out that what was far more important was the motives of peoples' hearts. There is much talk today about the secular and permissive society. People say that we are living in lawless days when in fact we are living with so many laws that we are in a “nanny state” and that we are encouraged to find loopholes in them. What is needed is not more laws but a national change of heart.

Can people change their attitude? Only if there is a greater incentive for them to do so. Great personalities have often brought this about either for good or evil. Certainly, Adolf Hitler brought a change in many a young man's view of life and its purpose; but no one has had a greater influence on people's lives than the one who died on a cross and rose on the first Easter morning. His teaching and example have brought about an immense change of heart. In today's Gospel, Christ said to his apostles before he returned to his Father: Thus it is written that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be preached in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. This repentance or metanoia, which means a change of heart, should bring about a spiritual and moral renewal in all our lives. This change will be brought about through Christ. Love is the most powerful force in the world for bringing out what is best in people. Our faith should make us realise the overwhelming love of God for us as shown in the life, death, and resurrection of Christ. If we really believe, in the full sense of that word, that God did all this for us, a change of heart is inevitable in our lives.

Masses for the Deceased: Father Michael McCarthy, former Parish Priest of Oatley, recently deceased, Margaret Haines (ann.22/4), Joan Sproule (ann.28/4), Dorothy Rowley (ann.21/4).

There will be no morning Mass on Wednesday, 21st April.

From the week beginning on the 25th April, the Thursday Mass will revert to 12md so that the children in the school may attend as before the pandemic and lockdowns.

The Parish now has the facility to stream our Sunday Masses: You can access this on YouTube by following this link:

bit.ly/stjoatley or

You can also access it by going to the Archdiocese of Sydney website where there is a list of Churches who stream their Masses each week. Just click on the link for St. Joseph's Parish, Oatley.

Parish 2020 – A Call for Renewal On the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, 12th December, 2020, Archbishop Anthony Fisher launched our new Archdiocesan Mission Plan Go Make Disciples which, with the assistance of the Sydney Centre for Evangelisation, seeks to inspire and support the renewal of our parishes as places of encounter with the living Christ for the faithful and beyond.

In the weeks and months ahead, we will all join together in prayer, calling on the Holy Spirit, to prepare the hearts of each of us and of all our parishes and Eucharistic communities to receive anew the fire of God's love and the desire to be ever more faithful witnesses of Jesus Christ. A summary of the Mission Plan is available in the porch of the Church.

Imposition of restrictions concerning Churches: From Friday, 12th February, an unlimited number of people can attend Mass, provided that the one person per 2 metre square rule is observed. However, our Church will only hold at least eighty according to this regulation, any overflow would have to be accommodated in the Marion Hall where the Mass can be viewed on the TV monitor. Because of the easing of the restrictions, the Archbishop has lifted the dispensation from our Sunday Mass obligation. Parishioners are once again obliged to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of obligation when this is reasonably possible. Those of great age, have health conditions or are otherwise anxious about the risks of Covid19 are free to remain at home and find another way of keeping the Sabbath holy. There is still the requirement of taking names and contact details of attendees. The use of a QR code is recommended for those with iPhones or smart phones. The NSW Services app would need to be install on your phone to access the code. The first time you use the code, it will ask you to provide your name and contact number. It will then send you a code to enter with your details and the app will then be active. It is then used every time you attend Mass, or when and where you visit other venues that have a QR code registration system in place.

The wearing of masks is no longer mandatory, but strongly recommended where social distancing is not possible. They are, however, still mandatory when travelling on public transport.

Parishioners who elect to attend Mass during the pandemic should consider the safety of other parishioners by staying away if they are unwell, and if so, getting tested and self-isolating while awaiting the results. It is also advisable that parishioners only attend Mass in their own parish and not move from parish to parish.

Confessions are now available before the 5 pm Vigil Mass (4 pm to 4.45 pm).

18th April 2021 – Third Sunday of Easter

THE INTRODUCTORY RITES

Entrance Procession

*Cry out with joy to God, all the earth;
O sing to the glory of his name.
O render him glorious praise, alleluia.*

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God
and to you, my brothers and sisters,
that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,
through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.
May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins,
and bring us to everlasting life.
Amen.

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

Collect

Let us pray.

May your people exult for ever, O God,
in renewed youthfulness of spirit,
so that, rejoicing now in the restored glory of our adoption,
we may look forward in confident hope
to the rejoicing of the day of resurrection.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD (Refer to your Sunday Missal or Liturgy Sheet)

PROFESSION OF FAITH (Nicene Creed)

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
At the words that follow, up to and including 'and became man', all bow.
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

GENERAL INTERCESSIONS FOR THE THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER.

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ, to the God of our ancestors who has glorified his servant Jesus, let us pray not only for our own needs but also for those of the whole world.

1. For all members of the Church in every ministry. May we proclaim to all nations repentance and forgiveness of sins in the name of Jesus. Let us pray to the Lord.
2. For worldly rulers who in ignorance reject God's Holy One and make the disciples suffer. May they repent and turn to God. Let us pray to the Lord.
3. For those depressed by the burden of their sins. May they come to know that in Jesus Christ, the righteous, they have an advocate. Let us pray to the Lord.
4. For believers whose hearts are filled with doubts. May they find comfort in God's word and joy at the Eucharistic feast. Let us pray to the Lord.
5. For us to whom the Lord has been made known in the breaking of the bread. May we be effective witnesses to the peace Christ has bestowed on us. Let us pray to the Lord.
6. For those who, in union with Jesus, endured suffering, and for all the departed. May they be now with the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. Let us pray to the Lord.
7. May our devotion to the Holy Mother of God, Help of Christians, lead us to Jesus, the Bread of Life. HAIL MARY.

Heavenly Father, you sent your Son from heaven to be our spiritual nourishment and to lead us to you. Grant that by our faith in Jesus the Bread of Life, we may be with you always. We ask this through Christ our Lord. AMEN.

Pope Francis Prayer for protection from Coronavirus

O Mary, you shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you. Health of the sick. At the foot of the Cross you participated in Jesus' pain, with steadfast faith. You, our Salvation, know what we need. We are certain that you will provide, so that, as you did at Cana of Galilee, joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will and to do what Jesus tells us: He who took our sufferings upon Himself, and bore our sorrows to bring us, through the Cross, to the Joy of the Resurrection. Amen.

We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God. Do not despise our pleas – we who are put to the test – and deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin.

Our Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You have already come and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be etc.

Communion Antiphon

The Christ had to suffer and on the third day rise from the dead; in his name repentance and remission of sins must be preached to all the nations, alleluia.

Prayer after Communion

Let us pray.

Look with kindness upon your people, O Lord,
and grant, we pray,
that those you were pleased to renew by eternal mysteries may attain in their flesh
the incorruptible glory of the resurrection.
Through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

BLESSING

May God, who by the Resurrection of his Only Begotten Son was pleased to confer on us
the gift of redemption and of adoption,
give us gladness by his blessing.

Amen.

May he, by whose redeeming work
We have received the gift of everlasting freedom, make us heirs to an eternal inheritance.

Amen.

And may we, who have already risen with Christ
in Baptism through faith,
by living in a right manner on this earth,
be united with him in the homeland of heaven.

Amen.

And may Almighty God bless us all, in the name of the Father, and of Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Let us praise the Lord and glorify him in our lives, Alleluia, Alleluia! Thanks be to God, Alleluia, Alleluia!
