AUSTRALIA DAY

On Wednesday, 26th January 2022, all over Australia (and perhaps Australians overseas), we will celebrate our National Day. As Australians, we identify as a Nation and acknowledge the various cultures that make up the fabric of our society, including the contribution of the Aboriginal people who came and settled this country first. There is no better way to celebrate our special day than by attending Mass to pray for this great Nation of ours, and to ask God's continual blessing of all its people. We are enriched by our diversity of backgrounds and cultures but strengthened by our national identity and unity. God bless Australia!

A special Mass for Australia Day will be celebrated in the Parish Church at 9 am on Wednesday 26th January (a Public Holiday).

FREEDOM: W.A. Somerset Maugham wrote a fairy tale entitled Princess September and the Nightingale. The nightingale used to come and sing to the princess every day. This roused the jealousy of her sisters who suggested that the bird might fly away. So, the princess caught the nightingale and put it in a golden cage. But once the nightingale was caged up and thus unable to be free it could not sing. When the princess says that she will take him out every day, he replies that he cannot sing without freedom. He must enjoy the rice fields and the lake and the willow trees without looking at them through the bars of a cage. "I cannot sing unless I am free", he says "and if I cannot sing, I die." So, the princess gives him his liberty.

Freedom is God's great gift to us but it is a dangerous gift. Christ in today's Gospel quotes the prophet Isaiah about himself saying that one of the reasons for his coming was to set at liberty those who are oppressed. Thus, Christianity became the religion of freedom and an enemy of slavery in any form. Where there is oppression we "cannot sing" and there is lack of love. Love is the keynote of Christianity and love is a liberating power. Love too is the enemy of evil. Our Lord said: Amen, I say to you that whoever commits sin is the slave of sin. He certainly came to free us from this form of slavery. He also came to show the value of each individual in the sight of God and that therefore there should be no tyrannizing over him by unjust treatment or insulting his personal dignity.

Today, liberty is often simply another word for permissiveness or licence. But liberty, to be true, must have boundaries. There is no liberty without law. Refusal to obey the laws, for example, governing sex only results in the end in misery and a form of slavery. Christ is the great champion of freedom. He is the "Truth, and the Truth will make us free.
