5th December 2021 – Second Sunday of Advent

Masses for the Deceased: Peter Hanrahan, Mario Piller Hoffer, Dominic Davino recently deceased, Fr. Ray Marsden, Fr. Keith Bush, John Saunders, anniversaries,

THE VOICE IN THE WILDERNESS: The words of John the Baptist about himself: the voice of one crying in the wilderness, were first spoken by an anonymous prophet who has become known as the Second Isaiah. They were spoken by the latter at a time when the Israelites were in captivity in Babylon, but they were words of comfort because the prophet was announcing that the time of their deliverance was at hand. Cyrus, the Persian king, was on the point of capturing Babylon and issuing a decree allowing the Jews to return to their homeland of Palestine. The words of the prophet ring with a joyful note: prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the wilderness a highway of your God. At long last the bonds of servitude were to be loosed.

The Old Testament foreshadows the New. St. Augustine wrote: “In the Old Testament the New Testament is revealed”. God intervened in history to save his chosen people from captivity but also to prepare the way for a far greater act of deliverance, the redemption of the whole world. The “Voice in the Wilderness” in the New Testament was a strong echo of the voice in the Old. Again a king was coming to bring deliverance to his chosen ones but this time the king was to be “the immortal king of ages” and he was to save his people from the bondage of sin.

We are looking forward at this time of Advent to the coming of our Saviour. In the spirit of John the Baptist we are to prepare the way of the Lord. We are to straighten out what is crooked within us so that the Lord can enter our hearts and make what was a wilderness rich and fertile by his presence. We are to make the rough places plain so that there will be no obstacles in the way to his entrance.

THE JESSE TREE.

The idea of the Jesse Tree for Advent comes from the traditional window in many medieval Cathedrals whose design is based on the descent of Jesus from the royal line of King David in most cases springing from Jesse, the father of David, and ending in Jesus or the Virgin and Holy Child, with intermediary descendants placed on scrolls of foliage branching out of each other. Some have the descent as recorded in St. Luke’s Gospel and others recorded in St. Matthew’s Gospel. A simple Jesse tree for children in primary school has cards the children have prepared and coloured, representing Adam and Eve, Noah, Abraham and Sarah, Joseph, Moses, Jesse, David, Solomon, Jonah, Mary and Joseph. Famous Jesse windows can be seen in the cathedrals of Wells, in England, and Chartres, in France. There is a depiction of a Jesse Tree in the window of the Church porch.

Revised Sacrament Program 2021/2022 for St Joseph's Parish Oatley

Dear Parents and Carers, unfortunately, our Sacramental Program will be suspended for the remainder of 2021. Specific dates for the 2022 Program will be finalised shortly; however, the proposed program for next year is as follows:

- Confirmation 2021 Catchup & Confirmation 2022: Term 2, 2022. Our parish will combine the preparation for both groups from 2021 and 2022. It is with great pleasure I advise; Bishop Anthony Fisher has announced that our region will be receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation at the Cathedral in June 2022.
